The Pillars Have Fallen . . . Lament for America!

Summary – This program explores the present downfall of America and how it relates to scripture. The summary will become VERY sobering to the discerning person and child of God. It will conclude that the USA that we once knew...is over!

This is Part two. Part one can be found in the link below.

Babylon Enters Jerusalem

When Judah fell and when Jerusalem was taken over, the princes of Babylon came in. I have been speaking about this on several programs, about the narrative that we can find written in Jeremiah Chapter 39.

But a similar account can also be found in three other places in Scripture. One of those places is 2 Kings Chapter 25 and Jeremiah 52. If you have your Bible, I want us to examine one of the other accounts that is recorded in Scripture. So, please take your Bible and go to 2 Kings 25.

I was recently a guest on the Hagmann and Hagmann Program a little over a week ago. I spoke briefly about some of these things, but I want to explore them further.

This is all going to segue into something that is very, very important!

Are you there, folks? 2 Kings 25.... In verse 1, it talks about what we can also find in Jeremiah 39... In the ninth year, they (Babylon) showed up.

Then after a year and a half of siege, Babylon broke through the walls of Jerusalem in the 11th year, 4th month, 9th day.

We can also read about this same event in the other location of 2 Kings 25:4. “The city wall was broken through and all the men of war fled at night.”

The Night

I find it interesting that there is a continual reoccurring theme in Scripture when it has to do with the warfare in our lives, the battle of our lives and the struggles that we go through in life.

Scripture continually reveals that the struggles and battles of life take place when it is dark. The enemy will attack you when it is dark. I am not just talking about daytime versus nighttime. I am talking about dark times...during times when victory regresses into defeat, oppression and sadness; during times where there is a season of overwhelming odds, where we find ourselves experiencing failure, disappointment, hardships and challenges.

In this life, you will have tribulation, my friend. Jesus said so. "In this world you will have tribulation, but be of good courage. I have overcome the world." John 16:33

Those are the Words of Jesus.

As I share these words of challenge and of warning, I have to preface them with the hopeful garnish that we always have a rescue. We do have an answer, but before we encounter our victory and our answer and our testimony and our remedy and our resolve; before there is a victory, there has to be a battle!....Always!

And during the battles, it is going to be dark.

That is exactly what happened to the people of Israel in Jerusalem, to Judah. Babylon attacked them and busted through their walls when it was night...in the dark.

So, in 2 Kings we can read about Judah's account of darkness. It is a very similar to what we find in Jeremiah 39. Many of the words are the same.

King Zedekiah tried to flee, but Nebuchadnezzar's army; his soldiers, overtook him and made him a prisoner. We have spoken about this event in other programs, so I do not want to repeat all of it

But Zedekiah is a type, a shadow, of the leadership of the United States. As Zedekiah was taken prisoner, he was also placed in bronze fetters and chains. And then he was blinded!

In the same manner, the leadership of America is experiencing the fetters of darkness and of hell. Chains are being placed in the high places. What does this mean?

Chains and Fetters

The leadership of America is in bondage to the powers of darkness. Obama is a puppet, my friends. He is a marionette. He is just going through the motions. And unfortunately, he is the one who will be used to carry this thing through...to dismantle America!

So the prison of Babylon showed up in 2 Kings 25:7 - They killed the sons of Zedekiah and they gouged out his eyes. They bound the King with bronze fetters and they took him to Babylon as a prisoner.

Therefore, when we mirror this event with the United States, the spirits of Babylon entered America on Inauguration Day.

The result? - America is being overtaken by the darkness, the spirit, and the sludge of Babylon. It is coming in ...the residue, the deceptive forces and the invocation of the underworld...into Amerika.

And thus the underlings of hell are transforming America into an end time prison of Babylon, in a similar way to Judah of old.

Folks, whenever there is a prison, there are prison bars. There are prison cells. There are chains. There is tyranny. There is the loss of freedom.

This is what is happening right now!

When we read the account of what happened to Judah in Jeremiah 39, if we were to limit the account to that reference, it would seem that Babylon imposed their victory over Jerusalem all in one day, or that it happened quickly.

The timeline of detailed events is not really shared in Jeremiah 39.

The Timing

But when we look at the same account in 2 Kings 25, there is a further explanation of how the destruction of Jerusalem occurred. We can read that it happened in phases. In verse 8, this is exactly what it says.

It says, “On the fifth month, on the seventh day, which was the 19th year of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.”

Let us stop there for a moment.

As I have shared in the past, the reference found in Jeremiah 39:2 reveals a cipher that tells us that in the 11th year, 4th month, 9th day, something happened to Jerusalem.

An invasion!

We can also translate this cipher and apply the formula to America, starting on September 11, 2001.

For those of you wondering why September 11? That is explained in my alerts found on my website.

So, you can go to my website watchmancry.com and read the alerts. They will explain these things.

When we begin our calculation on September 11, 2001 and apply the cipher formula that we read in 2 Kings 25:2 which says:

“The city was besieged until the 11th year, 9th day, 4th month.”

We end up with something very interesting. In fact, let's do that...if we take September 11, 2001 and we add 11 years, that takes us to September 11, 2012.

Then, if we add four months, that takes us to January 11, 2013. Then if we add 9 days, it takes us to January 20th, which was Inauguration Day.

Cipher Calculation:

1. September 11, 2001 + 11 years = September 11, 2012.
 2. September 11, 2012 + 4 months = January 11, 2013
 3. January 11, 2013 + 9 days = January 20, 2013 = Inauguration Day

That was one of the very pivotal moments of America's spiritual invasion. And now this day is behind us! But the spiritual invasion does not stop there!

Because when we get to 2 Kings 25:8, it mentions more timeline events! - The fifth month and seventh day.

So, a month later, this guy showed up in Jerusalem. His name is Nebuzaradan, He was Babylon's Captain of the Guard. He showed up on the fifth month, the seventh day.

So, let us apply the cipher formula again. From the fateful day of 911 - If we came forward 11 years, we would arrive at September 11, 2012. But instead of moving forward four months, let us go forward five months, (as mentioned in 2 Kings 25:8 quoted above) And then add seven days:

1. September 11, 2001 + 11 years = September 11, 2012.
2. September 11, 2012 + 5 months = February 11, 2013
3. February 11, 2013 + 7 days = February 18, 2013

We arrive at February 18, 2013. What does this mean? Here is what is interesting, folks.

Because I submit to you that, the phases of the evil onslaught, the phases of judgment, the phases of these events, are continually reinforcing themselves.

Judgment appears to happen in phases and in waves. And as we look at 2 Kings 25:8, we can see that another phase of Jerusalem's demise from Babylon's onslaught arrived a month after Jerusalem fell.

Therefore, for the United States of America, when we apply the same cipher formula, we arrive at February 18.

A very interesting date destination because this year, February 18, 2013, was also President's Day!

Therefore, I propose that just a few weeks ago on February 18, another wave of spiritual invasion came into America.

Now, when we look at the account that is given to us in Jeremiah 52 of this same event – (as I mentioned earlier, this event is found in four different places of Scripture: Jeremiah 39, 2 Kings 25, Jeremiah 52, and then in 2 Chronicles 36.)

But, when we look at this account in Jeremiah 52:12, we can also read the same timeline of events, but instead of this Nebuzaradan fellow showing up on the fifth month, seventh day, it says he showed up on the fifth month, tenth day.

“Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem,” Jeremiah 52:12

A Three Day Window

So, to the person examining these two verses, they may ask, “Is there a conflict?”

Well, according to what I have been able to uncover, Bible scholars and archaeologists have theorized that this individual, Nebuzaradan showed up on the 7th day of the 5th month, and he started his assignment on Jerusalem. It appears that he was almost finished on the 10th day, as Jeremiah 52:12 says.

When we assign and apply this event to our time, the 5th month, 7th day, takes us to February 18, President’s Day, as I just mentioned.

But, if we also apply the 10th day to it, like Jeremiah 52:12, then that takes us to February 21.

1. September 11, 2001 + 11 years = September 11, 2012.
2. September 11, 2012 + 5 months = February 11, 2013
3. February 11, 2013 + 10 days = February 21, 2013

Therefore, we now have a three day window from February 18 to February 21, where I propose this, folks. Some very profound events happened behind the scenes in America. This has to do with the continuation of the dismantling of the country.

What Events?

The details of the dismantling can be found in the Scriptures.

Since I am proposing that America is going to rhyme with the downfall of Jerusalem and Judah, then let us examine what this individual - Nebuzaradan did when he showed up in the fifth month, a month later.

If you have your Bibles, in 2 Kings 25:9, it says, “He burned the house of the LORD and the king’s house and all the houses of Jerusalem, that is, all the houses of the great, he burned with fire.”

So, when Nebuzaradan, the Captain of the Guard, showed up, he set fire to the architecture of Jerusalem. And the Bible reveals the categories of things that he burned.

Number one, he burned the house of the LORD. The temple that Solomon built 470 years previous, he burned, he destroyed.

So, keep that in mind, folks...the temple was destroyed and burned!

Next, he burned the king’s house.

Next, he burned the houses of all the wealthy ones of high position. So, possibly it would have been the bankers, the lawyers, the educated, the thinkers, & the members of the military who had high positions of authority. He burned the houses of all the wealthy.

Verse 10. “And all the army of the Chaldeans who were with the captain of the guard – that’s Nebuzaradan – broke down the walls of Jerusalem all around.”

So, Nebuzaradan assembled all of the soldiers. And they started tearing down the rest of the walls of the city. They destroyed the walls of Jerusalem. Please make note of this.

Verse 11. “Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive the rest of the people who remained in the city and the defectors who had deserted to the king of Babylon.”

Verse 12. “But the captain of the guard left some of the poor of the land as vinedressers and farmers.”

Verse 13. “The bronze pillars that were in the house of the LORD and the carts and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces and carried their bronze to Babylon.”

Now, I am going to stop there.

Who was Nebuzaradan?

First, before we discuss what Nebuzaradan did, let us first examine the question - who was this guy?

When we survey his name, it means ‘Nebu has given seed.’ Or, ‘Nebu has given offspring.’

To the Babylonians, Nebu was a god that was worshipped. He was revered. Nebu was said to be the son of Baal. Apparently, Baal had a son. So, Nebu’s place in the Babylonian religion was very important. He was the son of Baal. He was the son of their god.

Babylon gave birth to the majority of the false religions that have spread throughout the world. They began with Nimrod, who was married to Semiramis, and they had a son named Tammuz. When Nimrod died, Semiramis told all the citizens that he was a god. So, his name became Lord Nimrod, or Baal Nimrod. After a time, the name Nimrod was dropped from his name and he just became Baal. His wife Semiramis became Asherah, or Ashteroth, the queen of heaven. Their son Tammuz evolved into a variety of names. Nebu was one of them.

Therefore, Nebuzaradan means the son of Baal has given offspring, or given seed.

So, this is what I am proposing. In the United States of America, with the infiltration of the open portals and the creatures of hell's underworld coming into the United States, I am also concerned and wondering if some of these creatures are going to have an influence in bringing the Babylonian belief system of a messiah, the son of Baal. Or in their words, the son of god.

Could demonic creatures come into the White House and influence Obama into believing that he is the son of deity, which makes him a messiah?

False Messiah?

Ladies and gentlemen, we are already witnessing and observing some very bizarre behavior when it comes to the people that are surrounding Obama in a lot of different categories.

In the entertainment world, we are seeing Hollywood actors and singers proclaim that Obama is a messiah of some sort.

We are seeing news reports and covers of magazines that proclaim that Obama is the messiah, or the chosen one, or even the son of god.

Oprah has called him the chosen one. Newsweek magazine has called him the chosen one, the messiah, the second coming!

We are seeing this kind of bizarre behavior with many different people. Folks, when was the last time you witnessed and observed a president of the United States being called a messiah? Did you see that sort of activity with Bush or Clinton, with Daddy Bush or Reagan, Carter, Ford?

Have we ever seen the general public and portions of the American culture deify a president that we have had in the past? I do not think so, at least, not the way that we are observing now. This is very odd and bizarre.

A Great Deception

This is what I wonder. Are we witnessing part of the great deception? Are we witnessing some sort of weird demonic residual sludge coming over the landscape of America that is trying to convince and influence citizens into believing Obama is a cut above the rest? A messiah? A chosen one? If we are witnessing this, then I must ask the next question. Is this something that is trivial? Or, are we actually starting to see with our very eyes the transformation, the acceptance of a leader in the world who is being heralded as the one or a messiah?

If that is the case, what does it do to your end time theology? We are watching Obama become deified!

Heil to the Chief!

Now I know that we have read the books from the past, we have all been exposed to the theories and the interpretations of how this thing is going to play out regarding - The end time villain, son of perdition, the little horn, and, in some circles, the anti-Christ.

I know that there is a pre-packaged belief system that is a part of most of us, where we have been given the outline, the script of how this thing is going to play out, including where this bad guy villain is going to come from. 'He has to come from the Roman Empire. He has to come from Assyria – he is the Assyrian! He has to come from the Middle East, etc., etc He has to be blue blood from the line of Prince Charles.' I have read that information, folks. I am familiar with it.

God's Curve Ball!

But, I have proposed over and over on these programs, that based on what I read in Scripture and based on what we can see that happened in the first advent of Jesus, most people thought they had it figured out with Him also, but God threw a curve ball. The first advent of Messiah did not play out the way they expected. Because of that, I maintain that the second advent, which includes some of the end time signals, signs, mileposts, end time prophecies, are going to happen in a manner that we were not expecting, including the son of perdition – villain - little horn - antichrist character.

So, let me throw this out, folks. For those of you that may be listening to this, and say, “Nathan, no way. That is not the way that I have done my research. I have spent a lot of time on this. Therefore I know!”

Okay, fine. If you happen to have done a lot of research, put your research on the table. File it and make note of it. But let me just ask you, my friend, add this as another possibility to the table. Let them lay side by side because then we have more options to look for. And thus we will not be caught off guard.

Folks, think about this; The majority of evangelical Christians say that the anti-Christ has to come from the European Union. Over 90% of Christians believe this. So, what if Obama is the guy, if it could possibly be true, most American Christians would overlook it and dismiss it and not take it seriously as it happened before their eyes! I am just sharing this, folks. I am just throwing this out. What if?

A few programs ago I presented the question of ‘what if?’

There is some information that I have uncovered in Scripture that is going to be another program which will dig deep into this entire matter. When I share it, the information will be presented without having to do Biblical gymnastics and does not require one to be an educated archaeologist or historian. I found some interesting things in the Bible about this topic. It is thought provoking and possibly groundbreaking! Based on reading the Scriptures, ladies and gentlemen, I believe that there is a possibility that it could be true and I will leave it at that.

Now, am I promising this to be absolute truth...that Mr. Obama is the end time villain? Would I, on a stack of Bibles, make a vow that this is for sure?

No. But as a Berean that wants to explore, and as someone that wants to study to see if these things are true, we have to have different possibilities. And we have to be willing to explore them.

As the events are taking place before our eyes, then we can either, through the process of elimination, eliminate the suspicion. Or, the suspicion can actually gain traction, which would make it disturbing!

Nebuzaradan - the Captain of the Guard

So, getting back to what I was sharing about Nebuzaradan. Nebu has given seed. According to the historical accounts of this individual Nebuzaradan, who was called the Captain of the Guard, his name meant three different things. I find these three things very interesting because they describe what he did.

Number one - He was known as the cook, the cook for Nebuchadnezzar.

Number two - Nebuzaradan was known as the executioner for Nebuchadnezzar.

Number three - He was also known as the butcher for Nebuchadnezzar.

So, number one, he was a cook. When he first arrived in Jerusalem, the first thing he did was burn the house of God, the Temple, Solomon's Temple. Then he burned the king's house and then he burned the houses of all the wealthy ones. So, one of his specialties was scorched earth tactics. He was a destroyer. He broke things and he burnt things.

So, he was a cook. He knew how to do it.

During this time of Babylon's empire, Babylon was continually conquering their neighbors and expanding their regions. In order to do that, Babylon used some tactics where a message was delivered to the defeated regions.

The message was this. "Babylon is in charge. We are here now. To show you that we mean business, we are going to burn your villages. We are going to burn your castles, your king's houses. If you happen to have some sort of religion, we're going to burn your temple to show you who is in charge."

Babylon had a language of intimidation, fear and destruction.

Through these methods, the point was delivered to the regions they conquered. "You don't mess around with Nebuchadnezzar. When he shows up, you're in trouble."

He used individuals who specialized in conquering, in destroying, in burning. In this case, the man in charge of this task was Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard. He was good at burning things. He knew how to dismantle castle walls.

Folks, I have seen images of the walls of Jerusalem. Some of those stones are huge. How was it that Nebuzaradan showed up, with his soldiers, tore down the walls, and destroyed them? They must have had some sort of technique that they had mastered where they could make the walls collapse.

But the reason that they did this was because tearing down the walls was a show of strength, and it eliminated the ability for the conquered citizens to attempt to hold out in the future. Without walls, a city was very easy to overtake and overrun. Therefore, it was very important for Babylon to destroy the walls. That is what they did.

Bloodshed!

Nebuzaradan was also known as an executioner and a butcher. When he showed up, he would find the leadership in the conquered city and kill them. Because if you eliminate the leadership, you chop the city's head off, then all you have left are citizens who are very afraid.

Most of the time the uneducated are not well versed at strategizing for war. And most of the time, the citizens who are poor, well... they just want to stay out of trouble and be obedient and defect to the invading forces.

So, that was the tactic. Babylon showed up in the city and they got rid of the leadership.

In this case, they killed all of the king's family. They made the king a prisoner. And the king's councilmen, those that he depended on for advice, his advisors, Nebuzaradan killed all of them! He executed all of them.

If you have your Bibles, 2 Kings 25, go to verse 18. It says,

“The captain of the guard took Sereiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the second priest, and the three doorkeepers.”

These were the leaders of the Temple... Verse 19.

“He also took out of the city an officer who had charge of the men of war.”

So, he also took the generals and leaders of warfare, of the military.

“and he took five men of the king’s close associates who were found in the city, the chief recruiting officer of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people who were found in the city.”

It also appears that these 60 men were part of the leadership of Zedekiah.

So, Nebuzaradan captain of the guard took these and brought them to the king of Babylon.

“Then the king of Babylon struck them and put them to death at Riblah. Thus Judah was carried away captive.”

Now, it says Nebuchadnezzar struck them down, but what that means is that Nebuchadnezzar pointed, or nodded, or did the thumbs down, or just winked at Nebuzaradan. They had their signals. Nebuzaradan did what he was good at. He did the dirty work. He did his specialty, which was butchering and executing.

Nebuzaradan was an expert in misery. He was an expert at shedding blood. According to the historical account, in some of the versions that I have found about him, it is written that Nebuzaradan was responsible for the death of up to 14,000 people in the lands that he conquered over his career as the captain of guard for Nebuchadnezzar.

What sort of person does it take to be able to accomplish such a thing?

Nebuzaradan was an expert in delivering misery to the victims of Babylon's conquests. He was able to do it very well. He knew how to maim, how to torture. He knew how to spread destruction, fear, destroy cities, and to continue the expansion of the empire for Nebuchadnezzar. According to the historical account, when Nebuzaradan took people prisoners, when he showed up, the historical account says that he would roar at them like a lion. Isn't that interesting, folks? I actually find that kind of creepy and evil to roar at your victims right before you kill them or put chains on them or maim them, or destroy them. So, this guy was a piece of work.

The reason that I am sharing the resume of Nebuzaradan is because we can read what he did to Judah. If we were to apply the same exercise of comparison to America, and if we were to apply the same area of the timeline, as I shared earlier, Nebuzaradan showed up in the fifth month between the seventh and the tenth day.

So, for the United States, on President's Day, February 18, which was on a Monday, through February 21, which was a Wednesday, ladies and gentlemen, I propose that behind the scenes, in the USA, spiritual entities and principalities entered America. But instead of in the natural, they have begun the assignment and the agenda of doing a similar thing to America as we compare to what happened to Jerusalem.

The Coming Persecution

Now, let us break down the categories of what the Nebuzaradan destroyed. As I shared a moment ago, he burned the temple of God, the house of the LORD. He burned the king's house. He burned the houses of all the wealthy ones. He broke down the walls of Jerusalem.

When we examine and compare that to America, of burning the house of the LORD and destroying it; If we were to make a comparison, America does have the ecclesia, the called out ones, the people of God, the Christian church, or, in other words, the Christian establishment of God's people.

I am not talking about the imposters, I am talking about the real thing. The people of God, the sincere, blood bought who are living for Jesus. According to what we read right here, the freedom of religion for Judah stopped because Babylon destroyed the house of God. The temple was destroyed.

In the same manner, I want to propose this, folks. We are going to see persecution begin towards the church of Jesus in America. We are going to see the agenda change. We are going to see the freedoms in America become stifled...the freedom of Christianity.

Woe to the Church!

New laws are going to be written that are going to make it illegal to talk about certain lifestyles. For example, homosexuality – it will be made illegal to talk about this topic in churches. It will become a hate crime. It will become intolerant. Christianity is going to become hindered in the United States.

Ladies and gentlemen, the powers of darkness do not like the Church of Jesus. They are going to attack the church of Jesus that is above ground. Meaning...the true Church of Jesus is eventually going to go underground. Persecution is coming to the church!

We are also going to see pastors, spiritual leaders, priests, Christian workers, and people involved in the things of God; they are going to find themselves harassed and bullied by the new laws that are coming! Satan wants to destroy the church. He is also going to attack the preachers.

If you happen to be listening to this program and you are a spiritual leader, if you are a pastor, my brother, please pray about what I am sharing right here. These things are going to be coming and right now, we need to be warning God's people that the heat is going to turn up. It is going to become more difficult to be a Christian.

Fire and Deception

As we move further in the passage, we read that they burn the king's house. In like manner, the leadership of America, the White House, will burn with strange fire! Strange deception!

Let me also add that to the coming attack on the church; Strange fire, deceptive manipulation of the Gospel, ear-tickling heresies and lies are going to infiltrate the church. Meaning, that false teachings are going to become even more pronounced in the church.

Ladies and gentlemen, if we thought that we have been dealing with some pretty crazy antics lately, like the Prosperity Gospel or the Todd Bentley Gospel, or the Rick Warren Gospel, we know about those things.

But we are going to see even more deception infiltrate the church. Therefore, we need to be on our guard and we need to have a hold of the true word of God.

Now, moving on, Nebuzaradan also burned the houses of all the wealthy ones of high position.

When we examine this category, it means those in leadership, those that are a voice of reason, those that have influence, those that have the ability to teach, to sway.

Death to Freedom

In the future of America, if you might be one of this type of individual, the regime has no use for you!

If you are a teacher that shares the attributes of the Constitution or of individuality, ...sorry...the regime has no use for you. Because the regime wants to do what it has always done.

When Satan influences and infects a country with barbaric beliefs and political systems like Communism or Fascism, we can always see and witness their tactic of erasing individualism.

They have goals. They just want uneducated, silent peasants that will cause no trouble.

They want the majority to be silent “yes people,” who will not protest. They want compliance and the enemy of compliance is education. The enemies of compliance are the voices who are able to stir up the hearts of men to think otherwise.

So in the future, ladies and gentlemen, we are going to eventually see that the watchmen will have their microphones turned off. The Ted Nugents that are crying out for their freedom are eventually going to have to become more tactful. They are going to have to choose their battles, but they will not be able to speak out as they do now because free speech is going to be done away with.

Patrick Henry is a troublemaker. The regime of hell has no place for Patrick Henry. For those that have the ability to bullhorn their thoughts on the Internet, this privilege is going to have an expiration date.

As we read, Nebuzaradan burned all the houses of the wealthy ones in high position. Babylon has their way to intimidate and silence.

In this modern day of technology, perhaps their method will be a Predator Drone or perhaps it will be a white van that shows up and makes someone disappear in the middle of the night...

... Perhaps it will be a letter in the mail that says, "You're guilty."

....or maybe it will be a knock on the door that says, "You're guilty!"

....Perhaps it will be a made up news story, a manufactured media event, or a synthetic Facebook page that accuses someone of having an out-of-compliance-manifesto, artificial lies, or accusations...They have their ways, ladies and gentlemen!

At the moment... I, Nathan Leal have the privilege to be a voice. And I have had this talk with my wife. I have had this talk with my family, my children. I have a lovely family and we have come to the agreement that as long as God allows, I am going to continue to a voice. When God finally says, "You're done," then I will be done!

But ladies and gentlemen, what other choice do I have? What other choice do you have if you are warning your friends? We do not have a choice. We do not want their blood on our hands. We do not want to know that their souls are crying out because they did not get to hear...that they were not warned.

"...He burned the houses of all the wealthy ones of high position."

Redistribution of Wealth!

When we look at that statement, we can read several factors of application, including the old Robin Hood mentality. Mr. Obama has made it very clear; everyone has to pay their fair share.

(With sarcasm...)

If you may be a wealthy one, shame on you for having more than your neighbor!

If you have worked hard all of your life and you applied yourself, you educated yourself and you disciplined yourself, and in your life, you have the fruits of your labor. If those fruits happen to be a bank account, where you have more zeros than the other people, shame on you!

How dare you be rich! It is not fair!

Don't you know that there are other people in your town who are not as rich as you? You need to liquidate your holdings, your wealth and sprinkle it to all the others who did not apply themselves like you did.....

Ladies and gentlemen, of course, I am jesting! Nevertheless, this is the mentality of the Progressives.

"...So he burned all the houses of the wealthy in high position."

In the coming future of America, I have also warned of the following. The United States is eventually going to rob the pension funds of retirees who have their money in IRAs and 401Ks. I have seen the prophetic dream of this event. I have talked about it. I have warned about it several years ago. That thing is going to come.

The wealth of Amerika is going to be redistributed. This is the tactic of Communism. This is the tactic of a person who is a non-American, of an anti-capitalist...i.e. – Barry Sotero!

We are going to see that happen in the future of America, ladies and gentlemen.

...Next, he broke down the walls.

I want to talk about this. The walls of Jerusalem were torn down. When we apply this to America, what does it mean? It means that the walls of America's hedge of protection are going to be torn down!

Crumbling Walls Have Begun!

This thing has already begun! We are past the target date of February 18, ...and since we are beyond that date... this thing is now underway!

Now, ladies and gentlemen, think about this. Please consider this with concern.

God built America. God raised up America. He planted America, He watered it, and America grew and flourished into a healthy tree, into a very powerful tree in the world, an oak tree with roots that went down very deep. Then God surrounded His tree with a fence, with a hedge, and He protected it.

Now, I am speaking in the metaphoric sense, but He did this for Israel. Israel was His vine and He planted the vine of Israel. He placed a hedge around it in the same way He placed it around America.

And he allowed it to be destroyed! It was a wall, a hedge.

God also did this for America! That wall served as a protective cloak around America.

Ladies and gentlemen, when you think about it, for the most part, the shores of America have never been invaded. We have not been invaded and we have never lost major wars through invasion. We have not been occupied by neighboring forces from the outside because God protected us from coast to coast, north to south. In the military sense, He protected us.

Yes, America has her stains. Yes, America has done wrong things, but God still blessed America until a few years ago. The judgment began.

God raised up His voices who pleaded and appealed to the general public, but the voices fell on deaf ears. The voices fell on scoffers. The voices fell because the people cried out to kill the messenger!

So, now, God has gone to the next phase of America's demise, which is – this is the part that is very disturbing. God is allowing the walls of America to be torn down! They are being dismantled right now!. The invisible hedge, the shield, the cloak, the protection, the divine hand of God that protected America from infirmity is being torn down!

God is allowing it to happen, just as it happened to the city of Jerusalem. God is allowing the walls to be broken down on each coast and also north to south. We are not going to be protected anymore!

This is the part of this message that should disturb everyone listening right now!

Without the protection of God, without the invisible hedge of God, without the divine wall of His protection, how are the infiltrators going to stay out? How are the invaders going to stay out? How are the attacks going to be held back? How are the incoming, invading forces going to be kept out? Without the walls of God's protection, we are sitting ducks.

And unfortunately, we are now beyond that line.

Think about this, folks. The church is now being attacked.

In the physical realm, when the walls are torn down, nothing will be able to hold the invading forces at bay...

.....Meaning, that we are on our own!...

.....Meaning, the real estate of America is up for grabs.

The resources of America are laying about, waiting to be claimed by strangers from other lands. The beautiful parts of America are waiting to be claimed by invading forces. The plantations of America are waiting to be stolen...and looted!

.Ladies and gentlemen, this should strike a cord of disturbance in your heart, in your mind, in your soul!

If you are an American citizen, this should bother you. Because it bothers me!

The song “God Bless America,” is going to become a folk song that was lost in the wind of the past!

After the walls were broke down, Nebuzaradan took the people captive. Captivity entered. Captivity is coming, folks. Captivity to the great and the small, the rich and the poor, the educated and the commoners, the lowly, the humble, the meek, and those who are puffed up and arrogant and prideful.

Captivity is coming to America... to everyone!

There is going to be a re-assessment made on what life is all about in the coming months and in the coming years when captivity comes.

But will it be acceptable? Will it be acceptable to your neighbors? Will it be acceptable to your co-workers? When they are told that their life is going to be re-adjusted and downsized? Is it going to be accepted by the average man on the street?...Perhaps by some.

But, others are not going to like it. So, as a result, we are going to see chaos. We are going to see revolt. We are going to see people that despise it. I could do an entire program on the civil war that is coming, about the blood that is going to be poured out in the streets of America, as America continues to unwind.

That is going to have to be a future program, because I want to get to a portion of the scripture that I was leading towards.

This is found in verse 13. “The bronze pillars that were in the house of the LORD and the carts and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans broke in pieces and then carried their bronze to Babylon.”

Now, I know that this is a long program, but ladies and gentlemen, please continue to follow because this information is so, so very vital.

Note - The following information is of profound importance!!

The message of the bronze pillars is connected to the biblical portion of the Jerusalem’s walls being torn down.

When we examine the construction of Solomon’s Temple, it was built in a marvelous way. Solomon created a work of art, a masterpiece, probably the most beautiful masterpiece on the planet at the time. His beautiful Temple lasted 470 years.

And when Solomon built the Temple, he was instructed to do certain things. Three elements that he created were very beautiful.

They are found in 2 Kings 25:13 - The bronze pillars, the carts, and the bronze sea. Solomon made these things.

Let’s take a look. In the book of 2 Chronicles 3:17. If you have your Bibles, please turn there.

In this passage, we can read about the bronze pillars, the carts and the bronze sea.

In this chapter, it talks about Solomon building the House of the LORD. It goes into the detail of all the beautiful things that Solomon made.

In verse 15 – now make note of this – “Also he made in front of the Temple, two pillars, 35 cubits high and the capital that one on top of each one of them was five cubits. He made wreaths of chain work as in the inner sanctuary, and he put them on top of the pillars. And he made 100 pomegranates and put them on the wreaths of the chain work. Then he set up the pillars before the Temple, one on the right hand and the other on the left. And he called the name of the one on the right hand, ‘Jachin’ and the name of the one on the left he called ‘Boaz.’”

Now, ladies and gentlemen, please make note of this. This is very, very important. The pillar that Solomon built was over 20 feet tall. They were huge. When Solomon built these pillars, he placed one on each side of the door of the Temple. These pillars represented many things. They were types and shadows of deeper knowledge. We could spend several programs talking about the pillars. But in its simplicity, one of the most notable and important things that they represented was what they were called.

The Temple Pillars

As verse 17 tells us, the pillars were called ‘Jachin’ and ‘Boaz’.

If you are taking notes, write this down. The word ‘Jachin’ means ‘He establishes.’ or ‘God establishes.’

The word ‘Boaz’ means ‘In Him is strength.’

Together it meant, ‘He establishes with His strength.’

So, the Temple had two signatures outside of the doors where the high priests would walk in and do their priestly duties. These signatures were supposed to forever stand outside the Temple. They conveyed a message that was very important to the relationship between God and His people...Israel.

The message was this. “Israel, this Temple represents the kingdom. It represents you as a people. It represents your health. It represents the blessing that I am giving you. It represents my relationship with you, to show that I endorse you, support you, and to show that I love you. Place these pillars outside of the Temple to signify to every nation that comes into this land, that I have got your back. I am watching over you. And the only possible way that you can stay blessed and protected is if I fulfill what these pillars say.

Again the word ‘Jachin’ meant ‘He establishes’ and ‘Boaz’ meant ‘In Him is strength.’

So, God was saying, “You will be established by My strength, and only in My strength will you be established.”

In other words, “If you do not have My strength, you will NOT be established!...If you are not established, you will not be blessed!... So, make sure that you adhere to your part of the covenant!”

For 470 years, those pillars represented what I am sharing right now. At times, Israel became wayward. At times, Israel was confused, but God always brought them back. But unfortunately, a sad day finally arrived.

And Nebuzaradan showed up on that day! For three days, he had an assignment to burn, destroy, and execute!

Folks, God allowed it to happen. God was judging Israel because they failed to continue their relationship with Him. They went after false gods. They went in the wrong direction. God had pleaded with them for decades through Jeremiah’s words and tears for forty years.... “Israel, come back! Come back! Judah, come back!” He pleaded!

They did not believe that judgment would happen to them because they thought, “We have the pillars. And as long as we are God’s people, nothing can touch us. We are blessed. No one can stand up to us. It cannot happen!”

But, finally... Babylon showed up. And they surrounded Jerusalem for a year and a half. Eventually, they busted through the walls and went into the city. A month later, when Nebuzaradan showed up, he did a very, very pivotal thing. This event was the nail in the coffin for Jerusalem.

In their history, Israel saw bad events come and go. At times they might have said, “Okay, God is a little mad at us, but we’re going to recover. He’ll forgive us.”

They always believed that their misfortune was temporary. God would never leave them. God would always be there to rescue them.

And there was one thing that they never believed would happen.

The Unthinkable!

When Nebuzaradan went to the Temple and tied a rope around those pillars and his men started tugging, one of two things could have happened.

The angels of God who were standing there in the invisible realm could have said, “God, just say it. I will take out my sword and I will cut that rope and I will hack those guys up, the Babylonians. Do You want me to do it, God? They are messing with Your endorsement of Your people. Do You want me to stop them?”

God could have just nodded and said the word. The Babylonians would have been stopped. But, Jeremiah had been warning and warning that because God’s people were rebellious, God was going to allow their land to become desolate...a desolation. This meant, that in order for the land to become desolate, God had to let it happen.

And in order for God to let it happen, He needed to pull back His hand of blessing, of protection, of His power.

So, Nebuzaradan tied a rope around those pillars and they tugged and they yanked. When the people of Judah saw them doing that, what went through their minds?

Now, folks, think about this. I know that the Temple is spiritual, but it is like if the United States was invaded and the invading forces went through all of the very respected, notable, historical landmarks of America and tied ropes around them and yanked them down. i.e. -The Lincoln Memorial.

What if invading forces went to the Statue of Liberty and tied cables to it. Tore the head off, tore the arms off. Maybe left a portion of the shell as a relict of remembrance.

What if they went to the buildings of notoriety - The Sears Tower, the Empire State Building, or, perhaps, ladies and gentlemen...the World Trade Center! The pillars of strength, and they tore them down!

Uh oh....hello!!

The pillars came down on that day for Judah. What went through their minds as they saw it? Was it a casual thing? Did they ponder the words on the pillars...By His strength, it is established?

Meaning, our land will exist because God's strength will let it exist. But, if the pillars of God's strength were torn down, what will that mean? Did they ponder? Did they wonder...."God, where are you?"

Ladies and gentlemen, I propose this to you! When they saw the pillars fall, they were struck with a grieving, lamenting, heart-breaking, gut-wrenching pain where they wanted to rent their clothes, pour ashes and dust on their heads, and cry out. "No! You cannot tear down our pillars! Th..Th..Those pillars represent us with God."

They saw the event happen through shock, tears and through wails of, "I'm not awake. This cannot be happening!"

The Chaldeans tore down the bronze pillars, which meant that from that point on, God's blessing was no longer over the land of Judah, or over His people. God turned His back and He walked away. He warned that He would do it. He warned them, but they did not believe it. Now, they had reality to deal with.

When some of those individuals saw it, the fight was gone from them. Hopelessness overwhelmed them.

The answer was now made clear, "Will God rescue us? Will God turn it around?"

Now, they knew.... No!

How heart wrenching was that, folks?

America Shall Weep!

When we consider that America is going to rhyme with what we saw happen in Jerusalem. Ladies and gentlemen, may I propose that the pillars - The invisible pillars that God has placed to support the land of America - the pillars of His strength - the pillars that established America to become the nation that she was; blessed by God with His name; a Christian nation, a nation that feared Him; a nation that trusted Him, a nation that acknowledged Him.

In the same way, ladies and gentlemen, the pillars of America have been torn down in the invisible realm!

The blessing that has been on America that stated that 'In His strength, America would be established' ...Well, based on the recent record....America does not want His strength. America does not want to be established by Him. After all, God has rules.

And the people have made it clear. They let us know. They booed Him! Remember that? At the Democratic Convention, they booed God.

THEY BOOED PUTTING GOD BACK! DRUDGE REPORT

And continually, one by one, week by week, day by day, the States of America are enacting and passing laws that are going against the statutes of God.

They are making it clear, “God, we don’t want You any more. You did not establish us. We will establish ourselves with our logic, with our intuition, with our remedy. We do not want You, God!”

The moral downfall continues...Legalizing gay marriage, homosexual unions, and the continuation of the butchering of the innocent. Laws that restrict the statutes of God are continuing.

America does not want God, ladies and gentlemen! The leadership of America has made this very clear.

So, God is going to comply.Sadly....He will comply.

And as God at one time spoke the words, “America, America, where are you?”

Did America come out from behind the bush, from hiding herself. Did America say, “God, I saw that I was naked and I blushed. I saw that my skirts revealed iniquity. I saw that my hands are stained with iniquity. I saw that my heart, my motives, my actions – I have done bad things. So, I hid myself because I was naked!”

God would have clothed America. God would have placed a cloak around her and said, “I’ll help you.”

But, America did not answer the call. So, when God said, “America, where are you?”

America answered, “Not with You!”

How long could God of creation who looks down from Heaven, how long can a God who sees everything tolerate this and continue to bless us in spite of it?

How long? ...Judgment has begun!

Fallen Pillars!

The pillars are now being destroyed. The pillars of God’s blessing are being removed!

My friends, this very thought. If you are an American citizen, and if you are old enough to remember how it used to be, this statement should strike a cord of inner turmoil and lamenting and pain, where it rips out your soul and rips out your heart to know that our home is now going to be plucked. Our home that God planted and watered and nourished is now going to be abandoned by the Vinedresser.

“...The pillars came down!”

A little over 11 years ago, on 9/11/2011, God sent a message. God sent a sign to America. God sent a sign to the entire world.

He sent a warning, “America, your two pillars that establish your strength... I am trying to wake you up, America. I am going to let them fall. Let’s see if you get the message.”

On 9-11, we saw what happened, folks.

The pillars fell, but America did not get the message. The pillars fell and America cried and wept for a short season, but they did not get the message. The pillars fell and churches were full for a brief season, but the people did not get the message. The pillars fell, and the people said, “We will rebuild them and it will be just like it was.” Or, “It will even be better than it was.”

The people did not get the message.

Ladies and gentlemen, God allowed the pillars to fall. He showed us an object lesson in the physical realm to get our attention.

...And...well, here we are. Here we are eleven years later.

Today the majority of people deny God, they renounce God, exile God, forsake God, walk away from God, reject God. So, what is He supposed to do?

“...the bronze pillars were torn down and broken into pieces!”

So, what now, folks? What now? Are You are going to send me an e-mail and tell me I am crazy? Are you are going to send me an e-mail and argue with this?

The pillars have been taken down!

For those that want to have gatherings and sing the songs this coming July the fourth, songs like - “God Bless America.”.... Really?.... Does He? ... Can He?... Do they really want Him to?

We have entered a new season,folks. I do not bring this information with cheer and with happiness and with rejoicing. I do not bring this information and this report with victory.

I bring this information with sadness. I bring this information with regret. I bring the information that this land was your land and this land was my land.

...Was!

...When it was our land, it was established by Him. When it was our land, there was a culture for Him. The people were for Him. The morality was for Him.

...The blessing was from Him. And the bounty showed it. The crops showed it. The blessing and the prosperity showed it. But, sadly, ladies and gentlemen, that is no longer.

... Because it is no longer established!

Now, will America stay in this condition? Can God can come back? I sure hope so.

But will He?

Is there enough time? Will enough people cry out? Will enough of the rebellious ones change their minds? Will the fathers cry out?... Or, is it going to take God waiting for the children to grow up and cry out?

The pillars are falling, ladies and gentlemen. The pillars are falling!

...The hedge is being removed.

...When the hedge is gone and when the pillars have fallen, then the protection is gone! Our strength, the strength of America, will be gone. The blessing will be gone. The foundations of America will be disrupted and cracked and broken. The land will become a memory of before. How it once was, how things were... behind us.

When the children of Israel were in the desert, God led them with a pillar of cloud during the day and a pillar of fire by night. The pillar led the way. The pillars of God determined the way. It determined the direction. It carried their protection. The pillar of God blazed the trail. It separated the enemies from them. ...It stopped the enemy.

However, without the pillars, America has no direction because the pillars determine the way. And, if the pillars are gone, the people will go the wrong way. America will go the wrong way to the counsel of Egypt. America will go the wrong way and walk towards destruction. They will go the wrong way and follow the wrong thinking.

...They will go the wrong way and lose their battle.

The Valley of Decision

When the pillars fell down for the children of Israel, did they have regrets? Did they wish for a second chance? Did they wish they had listened? Babylon brought confusion. They did not know what to do. They were overcome, overwhelmed, confused, and broken. They lamented.

Ladies and gentlemen, as I am witnessing the downfall of America right now, we are going to watch Titanic America sink into the red embers of destruction. The plague is going to spread throughout.

Now, I know that this program is sad. I know that what I am sharing is sad. I know that it is very sobering. But, folks, what other picture do I paint? A fictional account? A cartoon? You want me to make something up that denies reality?

“Nathan, what am I supposed to do? You are telling me God’s blessing is gone. So, what does that mean for us?”

This is what it means, folks. I have been sharing this for more than five years. This means that it is going to be up to every one of you to find God’s mercy on an individual basis, to find God’s strength, to find God’s blessing, protection, endorsement, and let Him bless the pillars of your house. You can do that.

We need to do that. If you are a husband, if you are the father of your family, Dad, it is up to you. Be the pillar. If Dad is not there, Mom, be the pillar. As you become the pillar, discover what it means for Him to establish you in His strength. That means you have to find His strength. That is homework, folks. That is spiritual homework.

Now, I know this program has become long, but I had to share this information. Because the walls have been destroyed and because the pillars have been brought down, it appears that America is now vulnerable.

I am very concerned about that because I had a prophetic dream where I saw an event take place that showed America's vulnerability. I have been praying and asking God about it. So, on the next program, I am going to talk about it. If God releases me to share it before that, I will release it in an article.

(note – the warning is found here.)

So for those of you that might be saying, “Nathan, this was real serious. What do we do with this information you gave?”

My friends, you find God's mercy. You find God's relationship. You find God's restoration. If you may be a person that is backslid and away from God, please do not wait any longer. Come back to Him now. Because with the events that are coming, the only way that you are going to be able to endure and have His protection, His blessing, is if you find His loving-kindness and His mercy and His forgiveness.

In the book of Lamentations, Chapter 3, verse 22, it says,

“Through the LORD’s mercies, we are not consumed. Because His compassions fail not. They are new every morning. Great is Your Faithfulness. The LORD is my portion, says, my soul, therefore, I hope in Him. The LORD is good to those who wait for Him, to the soul who seeks Him. It is good that one should hope and wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD.”

To every listener that is out there, let us find the compassion of the LORD right now in our lives. I know that in this day of great travail and darkness and challenge. I know that the economy is hard on some of you. I know that some of you are burdened. Some of you are facing trials that are the climax of every trial you have ever been in.

God wants to encourage you. He wants to bring you peace. He wants to nourish your heart, your spirit.

Some of you may feel maimed, overwhelmed with doubt, confusion. You can call out to Him and be a part of that remnant that He is looking for right now. He is searching for those that will find Him during this season of trial and travail and darkness and challenge.

Some of you have souls that are dry and God wants to fill you, God wants to touch you, God wants to nourish you and forgive you. Some of you are embarrassed and ashamed for the things that you have done. Some of you may even be feeling that you have done it one too many times.

You have strayed too long, but your heart hungers for Him. My friend, call out to Him. Go into your prayer closet and shut the door. Get on your knees and cry out to the LORD, while He may be found. Reach your hands towards heaven and let Him rescue you. He will do it, my friend. He will do it.

Heavenly Father, thank You for this word. God, every heart and soul that is listening right now, so many lives that are hungry for You. There are so many lives full of confusion and doubt. But, God, You see them where you are. Show them that You love them God as they cry out to You. Show them that You are the God of loving-kindness. You are the God with compassions that are new every morning. Thank You, God, for touching them. We give You the glory. In Jesus' name. Amen and Amen.

Blessings to All,

Nathan Leal
